

Head Office

Take control of your stores

Having multiple stores doesn't mean it should be complicated to keep on top of products and pricing. Head Office gives you central access to all your tills and makes managing products, prices and promotions across all your shops easier and more efficient.

Head Office.

Take control of your stores

Head Office allows you to manage products, pricing and view reports across all of your stores remotely from anywhere.

Managing your stores with Head Office is as easy as 1..2..3!

1. Change prices, promos and more

2. Close sessions and wait overnight

3. All your stores are ready to trade

Set Intelligent Pricing:

Want to charge more for a product in some stores than others? Head Office allows you to group together stores, giving them their own unique pricing tiers and promotions.

Control all of your ShopMate tills centrally:

With Head Office, you can make updates to the products, pricing and promotions in any and all of your stores from wherever you are. You can even use the till messaging system to communicate to your shops.

Sales knowledge at your Fingertips:

Head Office features its own suite of real-time reports. Use these reports to better understand your stores and to fine-tune your pricing and promotions to get the most out of ShopMate.
